DEDICATION

We, the class of 1962, proudly dedicate this yearbook, the FALCON, to our faithful friend and teacher, Mrs. Ludima Burton. Her never-ending efforts in our behalf will long be remembered. We shall always be grateful for her sincere cooperation, which has made so many of our endeavors less difficult.

IN MEMORIAM

PAUL H. BURLINGAME
July 23, 1944 - May 9, 1960

From this world of sorrow and trouble
To the land of peace and rest;
God called you home to Heaven
Where you found eternal rest.

In our hearts your memory lingers,
Many times we think of you;
But we know some day in Heaven,
We will be seeing you.

To the Class of 1962:

This is the one big moment in your lives that all of you have been looking forward to with eagerness and anticipation. However this is only the beginning of your great moments. Over the past few years you have prepared yourselves thoroughly for this moment. Your hard work, your sacrifice and your preparation make this an extremely happy occasion. Therefore, we may declare that success and happiness come as a result of many things but in particular they come as a result of preparation and hard work. I hope you have gained this lesson well as it can bring you many great moments.

Your class has been active and has contributed much to the life of the school. I am proud of you. May I continue to be proud of your future accomplishments.

Please accept my heartiest congratulations upon your graduation from high school and I wish each of you continued success and happiness throughout your life.

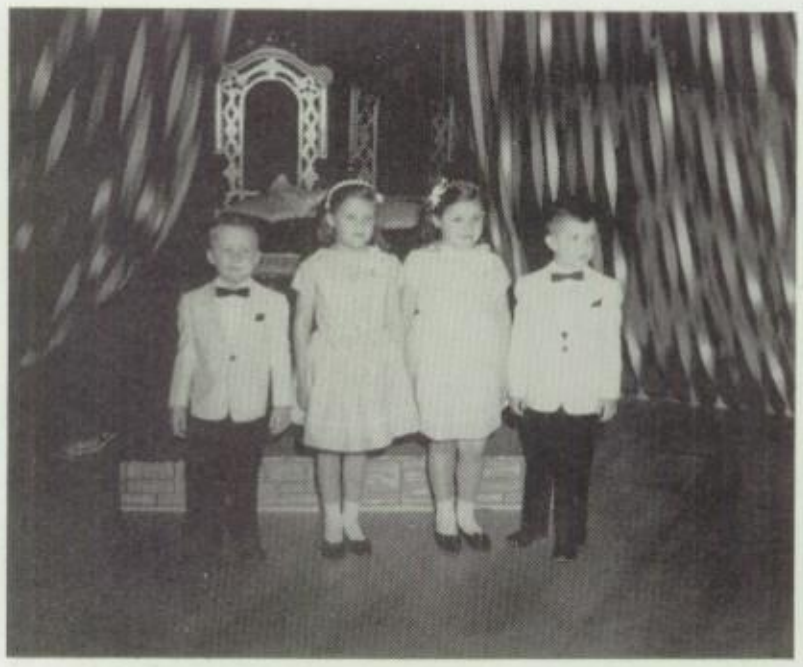
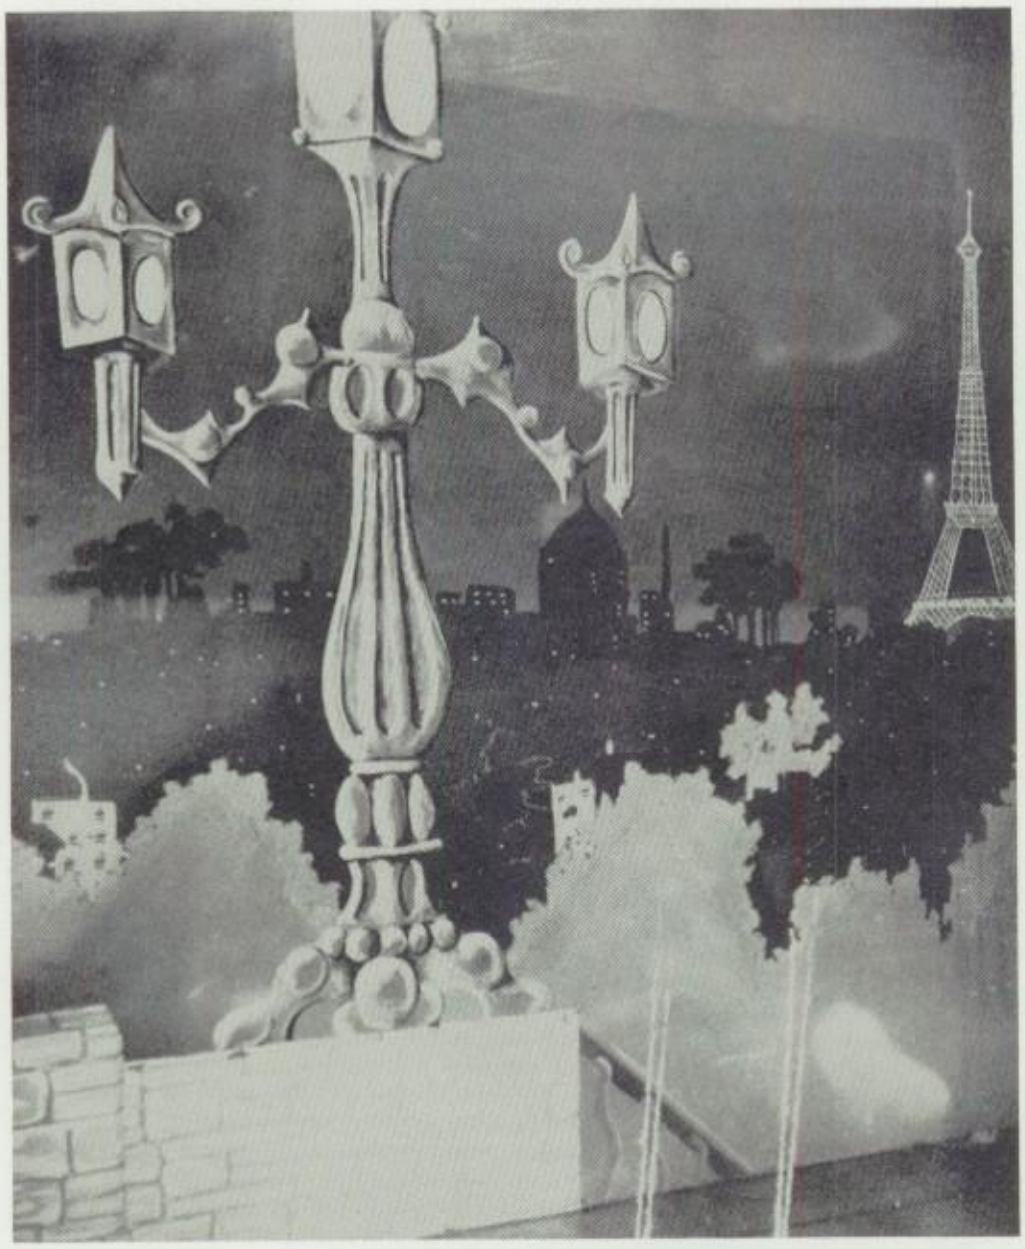
PROM SCENES



EVENING IN PARIS



The gym gayly decorated with silver, light and dark blue crepe paper; a back drop of Paris and its Eiffel Tower; a red and white stripped cafe bandstand; and Tom Derrico and his orchestra all helped carry out the romantic theme of "Evening in Paris."

All was quiet at ten o'clock when the announcement of the royal couple was given; Judy Edwards, queen; Robert Zanella, king. The royal couple was crowned by the 1960 royal couple, Charles Thum and Sandra Placey.

CLASS POEM

For thirteen years we've roamed the halls,
Our voices have bounced from all the walls;
Let's take a look and see who's here,
Who won't be coming back next year. maybe

Nancy brings joy as she goes on her way;
She's a girl we were glad to have in our play.
On the gym floor she shows lots of pep,
To the rest of classmates, Linda really is hep.
Conover knows her "P's" and "Q's,"
Her store of knowledge is very profuse.
Mary Lou is petite, with dark curly hair.
When it comes to true friends, she has her share.
To be a good secretary is Sharon's aim;
We're sure she'll succeed in winning her fame.
When throwing a party, Bill's a very good host,
And in voicing his opinion, he's certainly the most.
Beulah's our queen of the culinary arts;
She always finishes a job that she starts.
The Ford man in our class is known as Frank;
He's always ready to play a prank.
Rick gives us humor on many dull days,
And everyone listens when "Rock-a-bye" plays.
Carol F. has dark hair and laughing eyes.
We know she'll succeed in whatever she tries.
Don is suave and very neat;
His smile makes girls fall at his feet.
Even tho' Bruce's mischief is known far and wide,
All of his classmates are on his side.
Margaret H. is known for her beautiful clothes.
We know she'll be happy wherever she goes.
In every activity Barb does her part;
She has a warm place in everyone's heart.
Bob restores cars to their original state,
As a basketball star, he really does rate.
Roger's horse has been replaced by a car
Which takes him to places both near and far.
A pert little girl is what we call Sue;
The faults that she has are really quite few.
Harrison seems quiet to most of us,
But with his friends, he causes a fuss.
Willard is our basketball star;
His athletic prowess is known near and far.
As honor student and treasurer of the class,
Dave's done his duties in present and in past.

CLASS POEM

High in sports is Skip to be rated,
And with girls, not to be underestimated.
Owens is known for her friendly ways;
We'll remember her fondly for all of our days.
With wavy hair and dark brown eyes,
Denny collects that certain girl's sighs.
At engineering, Guy will excel;
He's a boy we've been glad to know so well.
John is the boy whom the "Czechies Five" provoke,
But he's still always ready to come out with a joke.
Paulette is a girl of many arts;
In our class, she's truly a queen of hearts.
It is true that some people Cheryl does mystify,
But it's no secret why there's a gleam in her eye.
Gene does well at whatever he tries;
His smiles at the girls always bring sighs.
Maggie is a perky smiling lass;
Everyone knows she's the coquette of our class.
George was a math teacher on Senior Day;
To the 7th and 8th grades, he's really O.K.
Melvin goes his quiet way;
The Marines will get him one lucky day.
Tall of stature and quiet of mien,
Ernie's friendly wherever he's seen.
Dick is one of the "Czechies Five,"
And when it comes to cars, he's a man alive!
Alice's air is that of a clown,
But when you're in trouble, she'll not let you down.
To be a nurse is Ginny's main ambition;
Success for her is what we're all wishin'.
Barb W. is our tall blonde girl;
She arrived in the fall, and since, has been in a whirl.
Andy's cute, vivacious, and nervous at times;
In the future, we're sure, she'll hear wedding bells chime.

The metal poured, the cast is cool,
The product polished bright.
The test is now to see how long
The shine will last in future's blinding light.

THE NIGHT BEFORE THE PLAY

SENIOR PLAY

"The Ghost House," written by Robert St. Clair, was presented by the Senior Class on November 10 and 11 in the school auditorium.

William Harrison (Donald Ferguson), young, adventurous, and just out of college, has inherited the old family mansion in the South. He doesn't at first believe the curse which is supposed to be on the Harrison family. Bill's girl friend, Gloria Willoughby (Nancy Besaw), her mother (Margaretann Shaw), a sophisticated, middle-aged woman more interested in the unimportant details than in the serious problems; her younger sister Ann (Carol Owens); Mr. Mellon, the lawyer (Bruce Fountain); and Mrs. Mellon (Paulette Sadam), all arrive to warn Bill not to stay alone overnight in the house.

Gloria's kid sister and her stuttering, naturalist boyfriend, Andrew Barnes (Willard Loveless), have a wonderful time at the ghost house. They think the colored servant, Patches (Rick Ellsworth), is very amusing to be so frightened in broad daylight, but when Patches comes down with scarlet fever and Doctor Roget (Bill Davis) quarantines the entire group in the ghost house, the situation is no longer amusing.

Old Mrs. Blake (Barbara Hilts), the cleaning woman, appears to know something more about a tramp, Soleless Sam (Frank Eddy), who is sneaking around the house, than she will tell. As midnight nears, a stranger, Rebecca West (Linda Brown), comes to see Gloria, telling her she has news which may save Bill's life. Then the lights go out and Rebecca West disappears.

The tramp, Soleless Sam, turns out to be a detective who captures the culprits, Dr. Roget and Patches, as they try to escape.

Finally, the mystery is solved, and the Harrison family treasure is found in the fireplace. At last, everyone can continue his normal life again.
